HAS SECOND TRIP.

Sch. Clintonia at New York with 8000 Mackerel.

Schs. Esperanto and Hattie M. Graham
Also There with Trips.

A special to the Times this morning from New York announces the arrival at Fulton Market of sch. Clintonia, Capt. Ralph Webber, with 8000 fresh medium mackerel.

This is the second trip for Capt. Webber this season, he having landed one last week at Fortress Monroe, and is the second one to make two trips thus far this season, Capt. Solomon Jacobs of sch. A. M. Nicholson being the other.

Fresh medium mackerel brought 20 cents each, from the vessel, at Fulton market yesterday.

In the fare of sch. Alert, landed at New York on Tuesday were quite a number of tinker mackerel.

A special to the Times this forenoon announces the arrival at that port of two more mackerel fares, sch. Esperanto, Capt. Charles Maguire, with 135 barrels of mediums and bloaters, and sch. Hattie M. Graham, Capt. Roy Kimball, with 80 barrels of the same kind of fish.

A special to the Times states that the fares of schs. Esperanto and Hattie M. Graham, were taken off Cape Henry, in about the same spot as the other fares recently landed. Capt. Charles Maguire of the Esperanto reports seeing but few schools. He took his fare Tuesday night.

Sch. Hattie M. Graham had 1000 large mackerel in her fare, which brought 30 cents each.

The fare of sch. Esperanto included 9750 medium mackerel and 400 bloaters.

Sailed Dory Handlining.

Sch. Electer, Capt. Daniel Rider, sailed on a salt bank dory handlining codfishing trip yesterday, being the third of the dory handliners to get away.

April 9.

FOULED ATLANTIC CABLE.

Sch. Hattie M. Graham Had To Slip
Her Whole Chain.

To Prevent Dragging or Parting the Atlantic Wire.

A special to the Times from New York states that owing to the heavy wind last night, sch. Hattie M. Graham did not go up New York harbor to Fulton dock, but anchored south of Governor's island, and in dragging her anchor, picked up the Western Union Atlantic cable and was forced to slip her own cable to avoid breaking or damaging it.

It is supposed that the Graham had a chain anchor out, instead of a cable anchor, as about all the southern mackerel fleet carry chain instead of manila rope cable.

April 11.

VERY GRATIFYING.

Spring Mackerel Catches Largest for Year.

Light Nights and Blowy Weather Now Bothering Fleet.

There were no mackerel arrivals at New York or Fortress Monroe up to 9 o'clock this morning. The light nights are now on, so the seiners have little or no "darks" to work on. Some of the skippers think however that if there is any body to the schools of medium fish that they will show in the daytime. If they do, some good catches will result. The fleet, since it went out south, has been hampered by very blowy weather.

Imports of salt mackerel at Boston to date, of the catch of 1907 are 24,451 barrels against 41,522 barrels of the catch of 1906.

The following table shows the southern catch of fresh mackerel, up to this morning, for the past eight

1901—Nine arrivals, 551 barrels.
1902—Sixteen arrivals, 551 barrels.
1903—Eight arrivals, 296 barrels.
1904—Eight arrivals, 855 barrels.
1905—One arrival, 30 barrels.
1906—Two arrivals, 40 barrels.
1907—Two arrivals, 70 barrels.
1908—Seventeen arrivals, 1906 barrels.

Thus it is seen that the present season south has, to date, been the best for quite a number of years.

HERRING SEASON OPENS.

Buzzard's Bay, Mass., April 11.—The herring season on Cape Cod opened yesterday and at all the houses where the fish are scooped out of the swift waters as they attempt to run up the narrow sluiceway to the big ponds beyond, their spawning grounds, is all activity.

April 11.

LOST ALL HER TRAWLS.

Sch. Muriel M. Young Had Hard
Weather on the Banks.

Sch. Muriel M. Young of Louisburg, N. S., Capt. Himmelman, arrived home Tuesday morning from the fishing grounds with the loss of her anchor and trawls. Only one set had been made by Capt. Himmelman, taking about 25 quintals of cod. The mishap to the craft was caused by the fishermen now on the banks. The fleet has been away over two weeks, but very little fishing has been done. The loss to the owners of the Muriel is over $300. She will rest and leave at once for the balance of the season.

SEALING STEAMER SUNK.

St. Johns, April 13.—Bringing tidings of the sinking of the steamer Grand Lake of the sealing fleet, sealer Newfoundland limped into port, leaking badly. The Newfoundland's bows and stern were crushed by ice, and her crew of 200 men were forced to stand by for thirty hours pumping and bailing to keep the vessel afloat. The Grand Lake was shut up in the jaws of the two great ice floes, until her sides gave way, and even her engines were crushed. Her crew of 214 men escaped to the steamer Vanguard, which was close by. A catch of 20,000 seals went down with the Grand Lake.
